Join us for a Webinar on August 27

We Must Never Forget that behind every statistics is a real person who needs our help.

In the US:

Approximately 800,000 children are the victims of child abuse and neglect.

Child abuse is three times more prevalent than all childhood cancers combined.

1,760 children died at the hand of their abusers.

More than 75% of the children killed were under four years of age.

Approximately 80% of all child abuse is perpetrated by parents.
