

WELCOME to Head Start Activity QuickSource®

It's just as quick as a click to link curriculum activities and learning materials to Head Start Child Outcomes. Click on one of these Head Start Domain curriculum areas, and you're on your way to meeting each child's individual needs!

Book Appreciation

Take the opportunity as often as possible to "Talk Through a Book." Talking through a book is taking time to talk about the parts of a book and how we use books. Read More

Letter of the Week

Many teachers used to teach the letter of the week in their preschool or kindergarten program. Because of the importance of letter identification, this activity should be modified. Read More

Parachute Play!

Open it up spread it out and the kids will come running! A parachute or play canopy is big, colorful and inviting. In preschool classes and teacher trainings, I've been sharing games and activities that promote gross motor skills, physical activity, lots of smiles and tons of fun. Here are some parachute activity ideas you may want to try with your own children or the children in your classroom.
